FROM TUESDAY TO TUESDAY

Juan's hobby is bodybuilding. He works at a factory where, in spite of his large muscular physique, he is bullied. He dreams of leaving the factory and opening his own gym, but financially this is impossible.

One night Juan witnesses the rape of a girl he knows. He is stunned and confused, and does nothing. Later, he investigates on his own and discovers that the rapist is an important businessman.

He is faced with the moral dilemma of doing the right thing or being able to achieve his dream.
